Investment Banking and Brokerage Firm Retains Flynt Group

Kansas City, MO – August 28, 2007 – The Flynt Group, Inc., announced today that a major investment banking firm with offices in the United States and abroad retained it to develop enterprise security programs and provide other services.

“Flynt Group’s philosophy is to build long-term client relationships based on our demonstrated integrity, absolute discretion and trustworthiness, and unmatched expertise,” said Dr. Bill Flynt, CEO of the Flynt Group. “This client has a similar culture of strong, performance-focused values. They were seeking a consultancy that would bring special competencies and experience in meeting specific threats, while blending with their organizational culture. We are excited to have been chosen to support them.”
