Royal Canadian Mounted Police Retain Flynt Group

Kansas City, MO – March 19, 2008 – The Flynt Group, Inc., announced today that it was successful in its bid on a contract to provide security consulting services to Canada's National Police Service, the Royal Canadian Mounted Police.

The work was in support of a project to design a secure, special purpose space that may ultimately be installed and used in various departments of the Government of Canada.

“Flynt Group competed against a field of several firms for this project,” said Dr. Bill Flynt, CEO of the Flynt Group. “We are delighted to have been chosen to support this important work.”
