Infrastructure Security Forum Engages Flynt Group

Kansas City, MO – November 26, 2004 – The Flynt Group, Inc., announced today that it is assisting in the organization of the Nebraska Infrastructure Security Forum (NISF). The Forum is comprised of public and private sector stakeholders concerned with protecting Nebraska's critical infrastructures.

The NISF (<http://www.nisf.org>) is chaired by Lieutenant Governor Dave Heineman, Nebraska's Director of Homeland Security and a member of Secretary Tom Ridge's Homeland Security Advisory Council, in conjunction with the Department of Justice's US Attorney, District of Nebraska, Mr. Michael G. Heavican.

Flynt Group's President, Dr. Bill Flynt, stated "We are very excited about the opportunity to be a part of the team organizing the NISF. The Forum is made up of the private sector companies and government agencies in Nebraska that operate and protect systems vital to the state's people, communities, and economy. We are honored to play a role in facilitating the corporations, industries and authorities in the Forum."
